Dear Julie

James Goddard, Carpenter of Speen

I have finally received the Marriage Certificate of James Goddard to Rose White Freeman. I enclose a copy for your files. As you will see James Goddard gives his father as James Goddard whose occupation or profession was "Publican". Furthermore the witnesses to the marriage are John Knight Goddard and Elizabeth Hannah Goddard. I feel confident that when I receive the Birth Certificate of James Goddard (the carpenter) it will confirm that his mother is Caroline Knight. Unfortunately because of restrictions on my time I am not personally searching the GRO indices and, trying to save time, I requested a search for the years 1857 – 1859. It is now obvious from the Marriage Certificate that the correct date is probably 1856 and this is why no clear cut result was achieved.

As soon as I receive the Birth Certificate I will forward you a copy.

Thank you for all the assistance you have given me.

Yours sincerely

Keith Goddard

Dear Brian and Julie

James Goddard (The Carpenter) born at Kintbury in 1857

I enclose photocopy of the Birth Certificate of James Goddard born in Kintbury in 1857 as promised.

I shall have to put my research on hold until next year when I hope to visit the Record Office at Trowbridge and inspect the Tottenham Park estate records.

I may try and get a mention on Channel 4's Family Tree (Teletext Page 489) to see whether I can get anyone else researching this line to contact me.

Best wishes

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Keith', with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the signature.

Keith
