London. House Surgeon at Salisbury Infirmary, came to Chippenham in 1887. Medical Officer for the district for many years. During the War, he was Senior Medical Officer at the Red Cross Hospital at the Town Hall of which Mrs. Wilson was Commandant. His three sons, Capt. Evelyn Seppings Wilson, of the E. Yorks Regt.; Capt. Geoffrey Mervyn Underhill Wilson, of the Wilts Regt.; and Capt. Herbert Raymond Wilson, of the Indian Army; were killed in the War and are commemorated by a window in the Parish Church. Dr. Wilson was a former member of the County Council and Churchwarden of St. Paul's Church. He retired from his practice about 14 years ago. He was highly esteemed by all classes. He married Helena Jane, d. of the Rev. Sam. Charlton, Rector of Tydd St. Giles (Cambs), who with a daughter survives him.

Obit. notice, Wiltshire Times, October 7th, 1933.

The Rev. Cecil Vincent Goddard, ⁰¹⁷¹⁴ died September 12th, 1933, aged 75. Buried at Boscombe Cemetery, Bournemouth. Born at Alderton, 1858, second son of Canon Francis Goddard, Vicar of Hilmarton. Educated at Winchester and Brasenose Coll., Oxford, B.A., 1879; M.A., 1884. Deacon, 1881; Priest, 1882, (Chester); Curate of St. Oswald, Chester, 1881—83; Chaplain at Teneriffe, 1887—88; Chaplain at Meran, 1889—91; Vicar of Chideock (Dors.), 1890—95; Vicar of Shrewton and Maddington, 1895—1901; Rector of Baverstock, 1901—1923, when he resigned and retired to live at Bournemouth where he became a voluntary assistant on the staff of the parish and Church of St. James's, Pokesdown. This work he continued until within three months of his death, gaining for himself the affectionate regard of many in all classes at Bournemouth. In his earlier years a weakness of the chest made it necessary for him to winter abroad for several years, during which he travelled somewhat widely in Europe, the West Indies, Palestine, and America. He was a man of wide interests, and much unusual information, and many of the "Bygones" collected by him, more especially in the way of old ironwork, and Ethnographical objects have found a permanent home in the Pitt Rivers collection at Oxford and the Salisbury and other museums. He married, 1888, Emily Kate, widow of George Herne Homan, who predeceased him in 1925. They had no children.

Obit. notices, Wiltshire Gazette, September 14th, 1933; St. James's, Pokesdown Parish Magazine, October, 1933.

Robert Little, died October, 1933, aged 84. Buried at Wootton Bassett Cemetery. A staunch Churchman on the Evangelical side, he was Superintendent of the Wootton Bassett Parish Church Sunday School for over 40 years, and local Secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and was interested also in the Zenana Bible and Medical Missions. He had held numerous public offices in Wootton Bassett for long periods of time, being Assistant Overseer for 54 years. He was a J.P. for the county, and acted as Chairman of the Children's Courts. His high character and consistent life of service won him the esteem of all classes in and around Wootton Bassett.
