Dec 2003..doc; Notes about Holland 1570-1626 &

subsequent Goddards.doc

Subject: North Hampshire/Surrey Goddards.

Dear Brian and Julie, first and most important, a happy New Year to you both.

Thank you Brian for your email, 12.12.03, since when I have been to the HRO yet again. The parish register for St. Peter's, Farnborough is hard work and when in any doubt I have called upon the excellent interpretative skills of the archivists. Anyway, attached is a copy of my most recent 'tree' with some accompanying notes so that you can follow my suppositions and reasoning. It's all pretty self-explanatory. I'm confident as far back as Nicholas and Mary (nee Thaire) and have set out my suppositions beyond them and back to Holland.

The record that you hold submitted by Ray Goddard, Southampton, and confirmed by Robert Goss, I mainly agree with. There is however one mistake; Nicholas (baptised 07.07.1655 at St. Peter's, Farnborough) is actually the son of Nicholas (and by definition) and Mary. The archivist and I are agreed on this. I also found another daughter for Holland and Jane (nee Eades), Margaret who was baptised at Farnborough, 09.07.1659.

I have limited the information to 12 generations but will continue to add data in respect of the offspring of my great uncles and aunts, and earlier, as I get around to it.

I have a lot more information about the various descendents of Holland, some of it up to and including the 1950's, but it's not really relevant to my 'tree'.

Warm regards for a happy, peaceful and prosperous New Year.

Ernest.

I've had a Message back from Gordon Rogers. Wants details to join but we'll see, you're right to hang fire. But he has now told me that the 1841 census lists James father as Holland Goddard and he has sent for marriage cert. which he hopes will confirm. Thought you might like to know this in advance in view of your continuing interest in the Holland name.

Hello Julie, Long time since I wrote. 2000 if you please! Lots of water under the bridge since then.... getting back to your letter. re George & Hannah nee Street..is a bit long winded so bare with me.

From the papers that came back to me after my brother Bob died I came across some photos of the family from Ngaroma..(see Newsletter no 54) jogged a little memory & I went back to some papers a friend had passed onto me. He was researching TOM's & found some GODDARD's to. Well it turned out to be the Ngaroma family ... then he sent me copies of marriage cert's & I got ~~very~~ excited..names began to click.. so will list them.. another mystery though!

you gave me....

JAMES GODDARD mar MARTHA GILES at Hawley 2.9.1828
b.1807,Hawley b. 1808 Windsor, Berkshire.

family..

Jane, b.1835; Ellen b.1837; George b.1839; William b.1843; Martha b.1845; Emma.1847.

 GEORGE GODDARD mar. HANNAH STREET at Farnham between Jan & Mar 1865
b.1839.Hawley b.1842 Isle of Wight (Hotelkeeper)

family..

Alice b. 1866 Farnborough
 George Ernest James b. 1867-68? Bramshill - Windsor?
Herbert George b. 1869 Windsor Berks.
X Wallace b. 1871 Rickmansworth - Watford ?

(This info from member of Wallace's family, granddaughter I think)

The birth places seemed at odds but definitely same person.

 George Ernest James came to N.Z. on ship Invercargille in 1887, settled in Rangitikei at Upper Tutaenui..now called Marton) Shifted to Ngaroma near TeAwamutu in 1914.

GEORGE ERNEST JAMES GODDARD mar EDITH MARY ANN SYMONDS

d.11.6.1944. Hamilton d.31.3.1948. Hamilton
mar. 29.12.1891 res.Porewa. parents.John Symonds - Mary Ann, nee TOMS

On the wedding cert. father is George Goddard, gardener, mother is Hannah Goddard nee, Cranston.
one witness is WALLACE GODDARD, farmer Upper Tutaenui. X

the other cert. of interest was.

FRANK WILLIAM GODDARD mar. SARAH MINNIE TOMS age 25 b.1876 age 23 b. 1878
Uxbridge,Middx, res. Greatford
father was George Goddard Joshua Toms gardener farmer mother was Hannah Goddard nee STREET.

...herein lies a mystery.. Cranston ..Street.. Maybe George mar. twice.. Older members having Cranston as Mother & younger, Street .. [the Frank also is a mystery] ..as the info came from Wallace's granddaughter this could be the case..but then I might be up the wrong tree.

Any clues from your end?

Maybe Frank is a younger brother. & only knew his mother as nee Street?

You will be pleased to know that I now have a computer, son-in-law Mark was doing a change & offered it to me. Brought it back from Brisbane minus the dentistry info in it! Am going to do a Senior Net course & we will see how I get on as to how much I will be using it. More on that later.

We had a super holiday with the family in Brisbane, missing a very cold spell here. Had beaut frosts, like snow, some periods of rain but now has settled into Spring. I see where you up North are having a lovely summer. We hope to travel over next Mayish just working on the bones of it now. Well will catch the post if I move myself. Gee the typing has gone downhill! All the best.

FRANCIS BAILEY sworn.—I am a constable: I searched the prisoner; two quart pots had been taken from him before I came up; the landlord, I believe, had taken them from him; his name is Hill.

THOMAS HILL sworn.—I took these quart pots from the prisoner, one from under each arm; I sent for an officer, and had him searched, when these other pots were found upon him; I put my mark upon them.

Prosecutor. I am sure they are my pots.

Prisoner's defence. I was so much in liquor, that I don't know how I got them.

ORIGINAL TEXT:

265. JAMES BOYD was indicted for feloniously stealing, on the 20th of February, 3 pounds weight of leather, value 5s. the property of Nicholas Goddard.

See original

NICHOLAS GODDARD sworn. - I live at Cove, in Hampshire: I am a waggoner; my waggon was robbed of shoe leather for soles; I left it in the inn yard, at Hounslow, on the 20th of February, about seven in the evening; when I got a few miles from Hounslow, the next morning, I missed it; it was about four or five shillings value; I did not hear of it for several days, a little boy told me of it.

PETER WOODS, sworn. - Q. Do you know the prisoner? - A. Yes; on Shrove Tuesday I saw James Boyd cut the leather out of the waggon, in Mr. Fish's yard, the White Bear, at Hounslow, about half past eight in the evening; then he carried it down to Master Woods's, a broom-maker; he cut three pieces off, and ordered me to put it into our waggon.

Q. How soon did you tell this story? - A. Two or three weeks after, I told Mr. Fish of it.

Q. Had there been any enquiry made about it? - A. No.

Q. How came you to conceal it so long? - A. Because I was coming from Hounslow, and he lathered me well.

Q.(To Goddard.) Have you seen the leather since? - A. Yes; Mr. Fish shewed it me.

- FISH. sworn. - I keep the White Bear, at Hounslow: Mr. Wood's waggon was at my house the same night, Mr. Goddard told me he had been robbed; the prisoner drove Mr. Woods's waggon, belonging to this little boy's father; the boy lives at Bagshot with his father.

See original

Q. Do you know where the leather was found? - A. Yes, I found it. This boy being beat, the prisoner was discharged; and the next journey they came, this little boy and his father came up, and while they were at supper, I asked the little boy, if he knew any thing of a saw being taken from the yard, and he said, yes; I asked him if he knew any thing of any halters, he said, yes, they were about the horses heads; then I asked him about the leather; and, in consequence of what the boy said, I went down to Bagshot, and had him taken up. A man came up, and said, if he had bought the stuff of him, he should have been in a pretty mess; that was in the prisoner's presence, his name is James Draper; I asked him, what stuff? and he said, some leather. Upon that I went with the driver, and found the leather; I carried the leather to him, and asked him if he knew any thing of it, and he said, yes, he had it out of Mr. Goddard's waggon, in my yard.

Q. Did you make him any promises? - A. No.

Prisoner's defence. It is a troublesome piece of business; you must settle it amongst yourselves.

GUILTY (Aged 18.)

Judgment respited to go for a soldier.

Tried by the first Middlesex Jury, before Lord KENYON.
