Nov 27. 1957 Surrey,

My Dear Francis

I expect you will be surprised to get a letter from me, but felt I would like to wish you all, Good Wishes for Christmas & the New Year & we both hope you are all keeping well. I am very well considering & so is Kathleen, I am enclosing a Snap taken in the Park, Kathleen ^{here} is on the left & the other two, are good neighbours of ours, he has been so kind in taking me out, as Kath's ~~not~~ ~~on~~ ~~not~~ ~~only~~ cannot get the chair out alone, so they have given up their Sunday afternoon for me.

I am sure you have.

Missed your Mother very much & it was a great shock for ^{you} I hope your husband is doing alright in his new business, Kath finds so much to do as she has to be nurse to me & look after the house etc & then goes to a shop in afternoons to serve so it does not give her much time, & I know you have a very busy time too.

We liked the snaps we had of your girls they are getting quite grown up & expect quite a help to you, I don't think I have anything more to say, so will close with love to you all & hope you have a very happy time & you know this goes for Kathleen as well

Yours affectionately

Auntie Lou & Kathleen

I shall be 81 on the 24th December - so please excuse mistakes; better writing has never been my strong point
