Dear Julie & Brian

I thought you might like the enclosed for your files.

I have photo stat copies of the original census forms & have copied them as written. There are obvious mistakes though.

Bilington 1841 Samuel aged 63^{age} probably wrong. Jane aged 15 supped me. She married Samuel a widower in 1840 Catharine was their first baby. I think Sam junior was the child from Samuel's first marriage. I think Sam junior married Elizabeth Newman & their children were Samuel, William & Elizabeth. I have the birth certificate of William. I think Samuel age 7 married Rachel Stokes^{007 1854} & went to Australia in 1856. His sister Elizabeth is probably the 15 yr old servant in Folkestone in 1851.

Folkestone 1861 Samuel 50 b Folkestone. 1851 says Capel-le-Merne which is just outside Folkestone.

Folkestone 1871 Frederick S b Folkestone s/be Bilington (my G.G. Grandfather Steed) & in 1871 the entry for Jane is Harvinge? (the ? is on the census return) s/be Ruckinge.

Samuel Goddard b3? in 1841 is my 3x G. Grandfather. 1851 says born Capel-le-Merne nr Folkestone.

His marriage certificate gives his father as William. As yet I can't find his birth. From his death certificate he should have been born about 1798. Folkestone library have searched but can't find him although they have got a William baptizing a Sarah. I've got baptisms, burials & baptisms for Capel-le-Gerne but can't relate to the Goddard entries. I'll ask Ashford library to search but I can't see anyone being mentioned about being born in Capel-le-Gerne. I'll keep you posted.

kindest regards

Joan Dibble.

2014 - I STILL HAVEN'T FOUND SAMUEL'S BIRTH. JD.

* Catherine was probably married by 1871 & in her husband's decess. I only did a Goddard search. You have her in 1881 with her husband, mother Jane & brother ^{STEPHEN} William. By which time my G.G.G. Grandfather ^{Samuel} had died. Did I tell you he fell downstairs, fractured his skull & died after lingering for eleven days.
