Dear Mr Goddard

I was recently looking at the Registered Surnames on the Guild of One Name Studies website and noticed your entry for the name GODDARD. This very popular name has appeared on my fiancé's family history and, long shot as it may be, I wonder whether you have come across this family.

William Goddard was born about 1769, probably in Oadby, Leicestershire, although there is a baptism about the right time in Leicester – 11th December 1768 at St Margaret, Leicester, William the son of Jonathan and Hannah Goddard.

William married Mary Carter on the 26th December 1793 at Oadby Parish Church. They had five children that I can trace all in Oadby – Sarah (about 1794), Thomas (about 1796), Mary (about 1797), Dorothy (about 1801) and Emilia (about 1804).

Mary married John Buswell in Oadby on the 20th October 1816 and it is this line that leads to my fiancé.

Not much to go on I am afraid, but if you are aware of any of the above I would be delighted to hear from you.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Ely.

Dear Mr Ely,

Your letter about Goddards has been passed on to me as at present I hold the Goddard Association collection of records.

As you will have discovered, Goddards were very numerous in the Oadby, Evington and Houghton on the Hill area. I would suggest that you contact one of our members, Mrs E. Carlson of 3 Castle View, Chester-le-Street, Co. Durham DH3 3XA. While I cannot see the William Goddard you are looking for on her tree, she has done extensive research into Goddards in the area.

We usually ask enquirers to give a donation of £5 before revealing substantial amounts of information, but as I cannot give you any further help specifically on William have the information for free.

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs) Julie Goddard

Dear Julie,

Thank you for your letter. I am now a member of the association and have found time to send you details of my research so far. This is only a photocopy as I have recently changed my computer and have not yet got my family history programme installed. However it is up to date.

The information was all gleaned from parish registers from Evington, Oadby and Scraptoft, Leicestershire and census records for 1881 and 1891 for these parishes and some areas of the city of Leicester.

I would be very grateful if you could put me in touch with anyone else who is researching Goddards in this area.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mrs Carlson,

I enclose a tree compiled in 1983 by Dennis Bryce of New Zealand. Mr Bryce, I believe, has since died but my namesake, Julie Goddard, also of New Zealand, is also descended from one of this Evington, Leicester family and is very much alive. Her address is Miss Julie Goddard,

Despite having corresponded with me, and visited me, she still has not got round to sending me her tree, but I have written to say you are related and you will probably hear soon. If not do write to her direct.

I have Mr Bryce's trees and yours on file and if anyone else contacts me from the same family (Leicester seems popular at the moment: a descendant of the Humberstone Goddards contacted me this week also) you will be told.

If you want to "flesh out" your tree with details from the 1881 census we can look them up and print them out for you.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J.R.Goddard

Dear Julie,

I am not aware of Denis Bryce, but a third cousin of mine (Elizabeth Carlson of Chester-le-Street) has been researching the GODDARD family. She has told me about being in contact with someone in New Zealand and getting the GODDARD family tree sorted out - it may be Denis that she has worked with.

I would not disagree with Denis if he has Elizabeth GODDARD marrying a Conyers KIRBY at Evington on 27 December 1831. I have attached a Family Group Record which gives details of the family (as far as I know it at this time). They lived for many years at 26 Conduit Street, Leicester, where Conyers was occupied as a Tailor.

I hope this information will help. Do contact me again should you need clarification.

Dear Paul,

With reference to your letter of 23rd December-. I saw mention of Richard Goddard Kirby in the Leics & Rutland FHS magazine for December page 50. One of our late members, Denis Bryce of New Zealand was descended from the Evington Goddards and Elizabeth is shown on the large tree which he compiled which is in the Goddard Association files. He had Elizabeth marrying Conyers, but I think that you would disagree with this. I would be grateful for information about Elizabeth for putting with Denis's tree. It is surprising how many Goddard families there were in Leics as I hadn't met one when growing up there, before meeting my husband who is descended from Goddards of Hampshire.

1891 CENSUS OF LEICESTER

I am assisting with checking the transcriptions of the 1891 census of Leicester and have come across the following:

Lucy H. [or A.] Goddard was living with her brother-in-law and sister Zillah in the Chawney Household at 2 Bartholomew Street.

Lucy was aged 28 and worked as a Hosiery Machinist - a typical Leicester occupation.

NOTE FROM J.D. 2011

THERE ARE SOME LARGE 'TREES' IN THE LEIC'S COUTH FILE THAT ARE TOO LARGE TO
SEAN. CONTACT CURRENT RESEARCH CO-ORDINATOR
FOR DETAILS.
