Subject: Starting family tree

Hi Julie

Thank you for your very prompt reply. Lynda and myself are members of the Goddard Association of Europe and indeed Ian is the Australian co-ordinator.

The names that you gave us did not ring a bell and on using the grey matter I remember that my dad Cecil Herbert had one brother George and three sisters ; Mabel, Elsie, and Doll. Mabel married a man named Ernest Kilsby and for a few years kept a pub called The Cottage in Little Irchester. I'm afraid that is the limit of my knowledge of the family because as I said previously there were constant 'feuds' and as a child I was forbidden to have anything to do with any of my relatives. Sad ain't it!! Anyway as I said if you can or if you know anyone that can point me in the right direction we will be very grateful.

Thanks and Cheers

Dear Brian

Please forgive this intrusion but I have been given your name by Ian Goddard of Duncraig Western Australia. My wife and I too are Goddards and we live in South Australia in a place called Salisbury East. We have lived in Australia for 36 yrs. My wifes' name is Lynda whilst mine is Pat.

We are very interested in compiling a family tree and whilst Lynda has made some inroads with her side with relatives and photos I am having no luck at all. I grew up in a village in the Midlands called Irchester (in Northamptonshire) with my dad (Cecil Herbert) and mum (Alice Kate). I was an only child and there were constant family 'feuds' and consequently was not close to any of my relatives. Would it be possible for you just to point me in the right direction with perhaps some addresses where I could write for information. To my knowledge all of my relatives are deceased so cannot ask for information in that area.

Please forgive this liberty but I would be very grateful if you could help in any way.

Thank You in anticipation

Pat Goddard
