Dear Kristina,

What a magnificent family tree you have compiled. I do admire your neat handwriting.

Having looked at the trees I cannot see where you have tied in the Midgham Goddards. I think I recall that your mother was evacuated to stay with them. Do you mean that you have been able to contact them again?

I am afraid that we cannot see that your Somerset tree ties in with anyone else's yet.

We do have a lending copy of the Abstracts of Goddard wills that Sean (Jim's brother) wrote about, but it will not help you with your Somerset Goddards as the wills are mainly the ones R.W.K. Goddard found in London. Let me know if you would like to see it. It is large and heavy and would cost you about £3 postage to return it afterwards. The Society of Genealogists has a copy under Miscellanea Genealogica.

The Goddards of Swindon, who owned a lot of land, held some in Upton Noble during the Civil War period and afterwards. When the manor house at Englesham was burnt down by his son-in-law on the Royalist side, Edward Goddard had to go and live with his eldest son at Upton Noble.

Jennifer Walker of Great Lype Farm, Charlton, Malmesbury has some Somerset records as her farming Goddards moved from there to Wiltshire.

Dr Keith Goddard of 712 Port Hacking Road, Caringbah, New South Wales 2229 Australia had an ancestor Nicholas Goddard who went from Somerset to Barbados in the 1640s - before 1649 - with three brothers and two sisters.

Brian has been in contact with Michael Goddard since the AGM, but I do not think that anything new has been found.

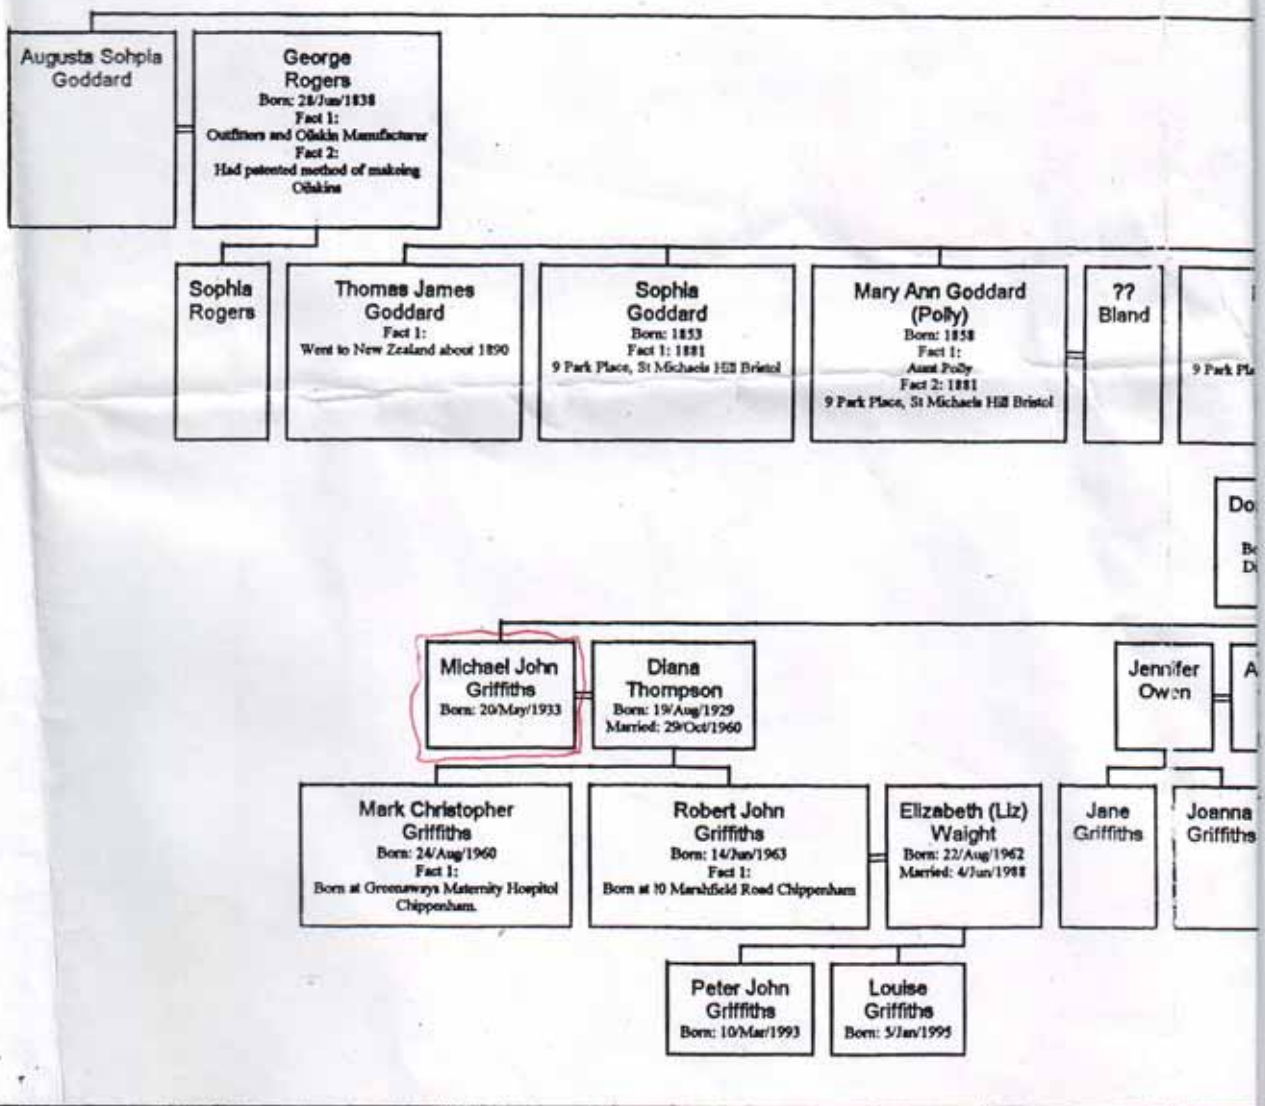

Waiting to hear from you,

Yours Sincerely

Julie Goddard
