THE FARMING GODDARDS OF SOMERSET - WILTSHIRE- MIDDLESEX

William Goddard of Westbury in Wiltshire, a farmer from Somerset had three sons James born 1833 and William born 1837, both in Somerset and Samuel born 1846 in Wilts. He had moved from Somerset to Wiltshire sometime between 1829 and 1840.

Around 1867 James Goddard married to Martha Amelia moved with his family of then three or four children to West Twyford Farm, Ealing. James died in 1877. Martha Amelia moved Wanwell, "The Bushes".

1877 William Goddard (married to Jane) moved to Ealing some time after 1871, certainly before 1875 when he was at Drayton Green Farm. He moved to Twyford House after James's death and died there in 1904. Twyford Farm was sold in 1902.

1881 Samuel Goddard, the youngest of the three brothers moved to Ealing some time between 1877 and 1880 -probably in 1877 after his brother William moved from Drayton Green to Twyford. In 1881 Samuel and his family are at Drayton Green Farm. In the 1880 rate book he is shown as occupier. The owner was Charles, or C.P. Millard.

1885 George Meacock (a cousin of Frank Meacock who worked with his brother William had taken over Drayton green Farm when their father, Thomas, the younger, died in 1855) acquired the tenancy of Wyke Farm, Isleworth.

1887 Sarah Jane Goddard the eldest daughter, it is believed, of James Goddard - married Frank Meacock of Wanwell. It would seem that Frank had given up Drayton Green farm, or perhaps leased it, by 1871 for it is then shown to be occupied by a William Seward, or seaward of Wanwell.

1890 Samuel Goddard took over Wyke Farm after George Meacock (after the death there of George's wife in April 1890).

1892 Drayton Green Farm was unsuccessfully offered for sale by its owner Edward Milland as a freehold building estate. Samuel Goddard still occupies; had youngest child born Ealing first quarter 1892.

1896 Samuel Goddard of Wyke farm died in March at Hastings and his widow Elizabeth Ann and son Frederick Richard carried on with it (see will).

1899 Mrs Elizabeth Ann Goddard's still shown in the Rate Books to be the occupant of Wyke Farm.
Elizabeth Ann Goddard married Thomas Goodenough, Reg. Brentford, Marchquarter Ref 3a 121

1902 Wyke Farm is in the occupation of Thomas Goodenough. (Rate book)

1908 Mrs E.A. Goodenough of Wyke farm acquires 3 plots of land, from the Earl of Jersey, in Osterley Park near to Wyke Lodge with a total area of 89 acres & 37 perches.

1930 Elizabeth Ann Goodenough, widow, of Wyke Farm, Isleworth, died aged 81 (see will)
