SIBLINGS OF WILLIAM born 1802?

WILTSHIRE - WESTTWYFORD - DRAYTON GREEN - WYKE

NOTE.

William Goddard of Westbury in Wiltshire,
a farmer from Somerset, had inter alia
3 sons James born 1833, William born 1837
<sup>in Somerset</sup>
and Samuel born 1846. (~~born~~ in Wilts.)
He had moved from Somerset to Wiltshire some time between 1837 and 1840

c 1867 James Goddard (married to Martha Amelia) moved with his family - of <sup>four?</sup> ~~three~~ children - to West Twyford Farm, Ealing. ~~It is~~ ~~possible that with his son his brother William~~ James died in November 1877. Martha Amelia went to Harold "The Rovers"

1877

William Goddard (married to Jane) moved to Ealing some time after 1871 ~~or~~ certainly before 1875 when he was at Drayton
Green Farm. He moved to Twyford House after James's death and died there in 1904. Twyford Farm was sold in September 1902.

1881

Samuel Goddard, the youngest of the three brothers moved to Ealing some time between 1877 and 1880 - probably in 1877 after his brother William moved from Drayton Green to Twyford. In 1881 Samuel and his family are at Drayton Green Farm In the 1880 Rate Book he is shown as occupier. The owner was Millard (Charles, or C.P.)

1884

George Neacock (a cousin of Frank Neacock who with his mother William had taken over Drayton Green Farm when their father, Thomas his younger child in 1855) acquired ~~the~~
~~the~~ the tenancy of Wyke Farm, Dolewille.

1887

Sarah Jane Goddard - the eldest daughter of James Goddard?

of James Goddard? - married Frank Reacult of Wanswell. It would seem 10th Frank had given up Drayton Green Farm - or perhaps leased it - by 1871 for it is then shown to be occupied by a William Seward of Wanswell
or Seward

1890 Samuel Goddard took over Wyke Farm from George Reacult (after his death then of George's wife in April 1890)

1892 Drayton Green Farm was unsuccessfully offered for sale by its owner Edward Hilland as a freehold building estate
Samuel Goddard still occupies; his youngest son
Don Edwin first quarter 1892

1894 Samuel Goddard of Wyke Farm died in March (at Hastings) and his widow Elizabeth Ann and son Frederick Richard carried on with it (See Will)

1899 Mrs Elizabeth Ann Goddard is still shown in the Rate Books to be the occupant of Wyke Farm

1903 ~~Mrs~~ Elizabeth Ann Goddard married Thomas Goodenough
Reg. Brentford, March quarter 1891 Wyke Farm is in the occupation of Thomas Goodenough. (Rate Books)
