Geoff
There is bound to be someone researching this line (she says optimistically). If you can give the GAE a better fix - i.e more details to go on, then we can see if someone else is researching this line.
Thanks
Carol

Subject: Re Goddard family

Hello,

I read the article about the Goddard Association in December Family Tree Magazine with interest and found your name etc on the Web site listed.

Last year I made contact with a Ronald Goddard who lives in Norfolk and found we were connected via the Cato family from Oxfordshire. One thing led to another and I ended up researching his line for him as he didn't know how to go about it.

I traced his Goddard's back to the 1851 Census in Paddington where a George Goddard and family were living. He was 40 and said born in Sudbury, Suffolk. He was a Sawyer. We moved house and I had to stop.

Is anyone else researching this particular line ? I would like to help Ron get back to his real roots so any help would be much appreciated.

Thanks, Geoff Everett.

Dear Julie,

It was your article in F T Mag which prompted me to make contact with Carol via your website and this roundabout route as the article gave no means of contacting you directly.

I am doing this for Ronald Goddard, a friend with whom I have maternal links. I have no Goddard connections myself but I like a challenge !!

Thank you for the info. I have e-mailed Norman Barnes saying he and Ronald should be connected and can we exchange data, so I await his reply with interest. I will certainly encourage Ronald to join your Assoc.

Thank again and best wishes, Geoff Everett.

Carol Nubert has asked me on your behalf if we have any Goddards of Sudbury recorded. We were asked the same question in 2000 by Norman Barnes of 35 High Street, Mundesley, Norwich, Norfolk NR11 8LN his e-mail address was at that time otto.pubs@dial.pipex.com. He had got back to George Goddard and his wife Jane Dickens as his great grandmother was their daughter Jane Elizabeth. I do not know whether he has got any further back in the intervening time. I did suggest trying the non-conformist records as Suffolk was a hotbed of chapels.

One of our committee members is descended from Samuel Goddard born 1816, died at Sudbury 1892, but she knows nothing more about him.

I have an article in Family Tree Magazine for December about the Goddard Association and how it works. You might like to think of joining.

Dear Mrs Goddard

re GODDARDS of Sudbury

Thank you for your letter of 9 June regarding our mutual interest in the above surname.

My interest stems from Jane Elizabeth GODDARD who married my G Grandfather George Albert BARNES in Paddington, London in 1873.

According to records I have, Jane was born in Paddington on 25 February, 1855 the daughter of George GODDARD and Jane nee DICKENS; who in turn married at St Johns, Paddington 23 December, 1838. George gave his occupation as Carder on his marriage certificate, Mason on Jane's birth certificate and Sawyer on the 1851 Census where he also states his birthplace as Sudbury in Suffolk and gives his age as 40. Placing his birth date around 1811.

I have trawled through the Parish Registers of All Saints, St Peter, and St Gregory in Sudbury for both George's baptism and/or marriage around the relevant dates but with no luck.

As you can see I am now stuck. If a connection can be made with one of your members I would obviously be very appreciative of any information, on the other hand if any of the above is of interest to them please feel free to pass it on.

Yours sincerely,

Norman Barnes

SUDBURY

GODDARD ASSOCIATION OF

17 June 2000

Dear Mr Barnes,

re Goddards, Sudbury, Suffolk

Thank you for your letter and details of your ancestor George Goddard, born Sudbury around 1811.

I have had a look through our Suffolk records. Goddards/Garrods/Gorrods are so numerous in this county that we were quoted £53 for an extract of the Goddard names in the 1851 census index. Having said this, it is remarkable that we only have one reference to the town in our files.

Mrs Margaret McAlpin, 26 Pinions Road, High Wycombe, HP13 7AG is descended from Samuel Goddard, born 1816 in Sudbury - or perhaps died there; Mrs McAlpin's tree is not very clear. Samuel, whose father is also thought to be named Samuel, left his birthplace for London. I suggest that you write to Mrs McAlpin and ask her for further details. She has an e-mail address but I do not seem to have been given it.

Have you taken into consideration that Suffolk was full of non-conformist chapels and that Sudbury probably had one? And that the ages given at censuses are often inaccurate? Have the settlement certificates for Sudbury survived? Sudbury is right on the border with Essex; have you tried the adjacent Essex parishes for his origins?

I will keep your letter on file and if anyone else writes in with similar details I will let you know. Then you might consider joining the society and pooling your knowledge. If you and Mrs McAlpin prove a connection, please also let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J.R.Goddard
