Family History Report- Descendants of Stephen GODDARD and Sarah POWELL

Short speeches by the Vicar's Warden (Mr G A Rouse) and the people's Warden (Mr E G Harris) paid tribute to the good grounding in the faith that his children had received under Miss Goddard, and reflected their pride in her and the wonderful regard in which she was held.

In reply, Miss GODDARD said what a wonderful privilege it was to be allowed to teach the Catholic Faith in the church and parish for so long. She had loved the work and thought everyone had been too kind"

"THE RETIREMENT OF MISS GODDARD

Miss Goddard, the first assistant of Oxford Road School, Reading, retired on June 30th. Her retirement was marked by a farewell and presentation, which testified to the high esteem and affection in which she was held. Alderman Miss Sutton and Councillor Miss Hulleatt, with many old colleagues, were present, as well as the staff and scholars.

A letter was read from Miss Cooke, the former head mistress of Oxford Road School, who although unable to be present, wished to say how grateful she was to Miss Goddard for her invaluable co-operation during the years they had worked together. Alderman Miss Sutton and Councillor Miss Hulleatt both spoke of Miss Goddard's devoted work to her school.

Miss Sutton then presented Miss Goddard, on behalf of the staff, old colleagues, past and present scholars with a grand-mother Westminster chiming clock and an oak tea wagon

The present head mistress is Mrs F M Waight"
