EAST GRAFTON
GREAT BEDWYN

February 12, 1990

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Goddard,

Recently in the library of the Victoria Genealogical Society, of which I am a member, I read of the Goddard Association of Europe in the Wiltshire Family History Society magazine. Your name was listed as the persons to contact for further information about newsletter, computer index and research advice, and I should like to know more about all of these things.

When in London, I was able to look at the Census records and get a little information (copies of lists enclosed so you can identify the family I am researching) but was unable to see Parish Records of the area and was unable to fit in a visit to your County Record Office in Wilts. I have been unable to order copies of the Parish Records through the Victoria branch of the Mormon Church (which kindly lets non-members use their facilities). They simply don't have copies of Wilts. Parish Records, whether because they haven't been able to copy them yet or because the records have not yet been released. If your Association is making a computer index of Goddards before 1900, hopefully the Goddards I am looking for will be there.

The marriage of my great grandmother, Martha Goddard, to Thomas Eyles took place in St. Nicholas Church in East Grafton. Sarah Elizabeth Newport was her sister, George Goddard, her father.

You will see in the 1861 census for Middlesex that (Martha Goddard) and Thomas Eyles lived at 111 Finsbury Road. Their elder daughter is there also but my grandmother, born 1 August 1876, is not there. She used to tell us that she treasured her wonderful visits to her aunt in the country and she may have been there.

Recently I got a copy of the small book "Memoir of the Goddards of North Wilts by Richard Jefferies, Coate, Swindon. It is an interesting historical account of the Goddards and fits in with the talk at your 1989 Annual General Meeting. However it doesn't come far enough forward or include enough side lines to make a connection with Martha.

I would be interested in knowing more about the Goddard Association and whether or not I could become a member, and the fees. Could you tell me more about your newsletter and computer index of Goddards before 1900?

I very much look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Betty Judd
