

24/2/01

Dear Julie

Enclosed, as promised on the phone this morning, are the "Strays" of Goddards of Wiltshire, which I obtained from Wilts. Family History Society. They may come in handy for someone!

In reply to your PS - No, sorry I am not on the internet.

I was also sorry I couldn't come up with any information to help new member, Raureen Crocker. Try me again though if you think I can help.

Best wishes

Daryl Walker

GODDARD ASSOCIATIO

April 27, 1999

Dear Mr Grohn,

Goddards of West Lavington

Welcome long, lost cousin! Several years ago we were contacted by several people who wondered where Charles Goddard was sent.

They are Mrs Rosemary Abrahams, 4. and Mr Brian Goddard, 18 Farrar Parade, N and also, possibly, Mr T.C.Goddard, 49 Buck heard from him in 1988.

Mr T.C.Goddard wrote that he had been trying to trace his grandfather's half brother who emigrated to the U.S. and lived on the East Coast possibly in the Boston or New York areas. Unfortunately he knew neither his name nor the date of emigration, though it could have been in the third quarter of the last century. He knew something of his grandfather and great grandfather. The latter, Stephen Goddard, and his (second?)wife Emily lived in West Lavington, Devizes and Swindon areas of Wiltshire. Their son, William Stephen, born about 1844, drove dray horses for Bodworth's Brewery in Devizes. His first wife committed suicide, and he married Emily Higgs about 1890. He died in January 1906 at Whitchurch near Pangbourne in Berkshire, receiving on his death bed a visit from a black American lawyer, also coincidentally surnamed Goddard, who had come with details of his half-brother's will.

Brian Goddard's grandfather was John William Goddard. Brian says that Charles Goddard, his grandfather's brother, was adopted and taken to the USA and wonders if anyone knows him!!

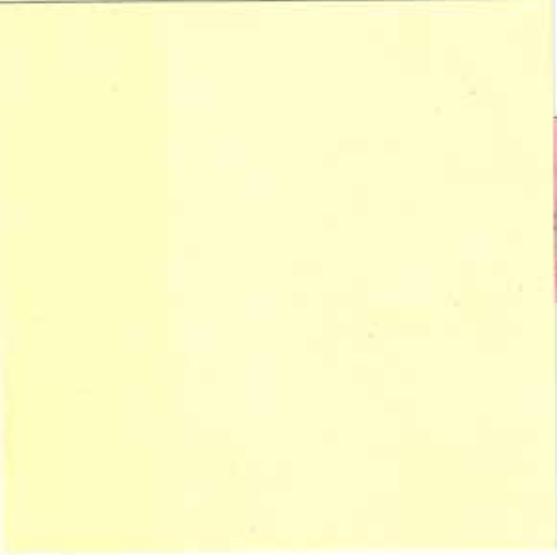

Mrs Abrahams still lives at the address I have given (I have telephoned but she is away at the moment) and Brian Goddard is still a member of the association.

When you have all got in touch and pooled your knowledge please let me know what you have found so that I can keep my files up to date and can put any others of your family who ask, in touch with you.

Yours sincerely,

Julie Goddard

Dear Mrs. Goddard,

As a new member of The Goddard Association of Europe I have been advised by Mr. John C. Goddard, Membership Secretary, to contact you for possible information or suggestions on tracing my Goddard ancestors in the U.K.

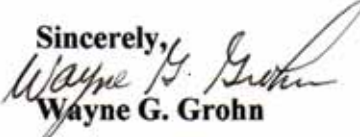

My grandfather is CHARLES THOMAS GODDARD, born in Cardiff, Glamorganshire, Wales on 8 May 1877-8(?). According to the 1881 U.K. surname census, Charles' father is listed as WILLIAM GODDARD, born at WEST LAVINGTON, WILTSHIRE, and his mother ELLEN (nee: ?) was born at CREECH, ST. MICHAELS, SOMERSET. There are 6 other children listed.

Charles was sent to the United States in 1885 with a relative by the name of ROOT (sp?) for reasons unknown. The rest of the family remained in the U.K. The Roots settled in Chicago where, after several years, met Alice Elms formally of London, Ontario, Canada. (The Elm's family originally came from Kent, England). They were married in 1900 and had two children, Lillian (my mother) and her brother Frederick.

Charles became an apprentice printer and after several years became the owner of a very large printing company, in the downtown area of Chicago. After his retirement he died in Tucson, Arizona on 25 November 1964.

I would appreciate hearing from anyone that has knowledge of my ancestors. You may share the information I have enclosed to any member that has an interest in my Goddard line. I can be reached at the above address or by computer e-mail at :grohnw@gte.net

I am enclosing a self-address envelope and three international postal coupons for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Wayne G. Grohn

Dear Mr. Goddard, I would like to join the Goddard Association.

My father Albert Henry Goddard was born 23 Sep. 1894
at Cardiff, 79 Minny St., St. John, Wales

My grandfather John William Goddard was born 12 Jan. 1875
at Glamorgan, 10 Poor St., St. Mary, Wales

My great grandfather William Goddard was born approx 1839
at West Lavington, Wilts, England

My greatgreat grandfather Edmund Goddard was born 14 July 1811
at Market Lavington, Wilts, England

My greatgreatgreat grandfather William Goddard born ?
at ?

Married on 10 October 1802
Sarah Gee at Market Lavington, Wilts, England
Mary Ann Draper

A rather fascinating occurrence was the following:-

My great grandfather, William Goddard had a number of children (seven in all) one whose name was Charles Goddard who was adopted and taken to America as a small child.

I would like to try and track this down, if possible. Some one may be able to tell me where to start.

Also, my grandfather John William Goddard had a brother Edward Goddard born 16th August 1876 probably in Cardiff, Wales. I would like to find out if Edward had any descendants.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Yours sincerely
Brian Goddard
